1926-2026 APPALACHIAN FAIR | A CENTURY OF FAMILY, FARMING, & FUN!

Appalachian Fair's General Rules & Regulations

To ensure a safe, fun, family-friendly environment, the Appalachian Fair implements these rules and regulations for having the best experience possible! 🌿 🎵 🐾

Entry & Security

-  All items brought onto the fairgrounds are subject to search by security personnel.
-  The Appalachian Fair reserves the right to deny entry to any person or item deemed unsafe by Appalachian Fair Security Officials or the Washington County Sheriff's Department.

Prohibited & Restricted Items

-  Selfie sticks
-  Backpacks (discouraged)
-  Firearms or weapons of any kind
-  Outside food & beverages (including coolers) – Exceptions may be made for guests with special dietary needs, baby food, or infant formula
-  Alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs
-  Tobacco products – discouraged and strictly not allowed in barns or seating areas
-  Umbrellas – not allowed in concert or seating areas
-  Camping/tailgating chairs – not allowed
-  Pets – not permitted at any time unless part of an authorized show/exhibit. Only trained service dogs assisting guests with disabilities are permitted. Service animals must remain under control, on a leash or harness at all times.
-  Drones/motorized aircraft systems – prohibited above or near the fairgrounds unless prior permission is obtained from fair management, in accordance with FAA regulations.

Weather Policy

-  The Appalachian Fair is a rain or shine event, including all concerts and attractions.
-  No rainchecks or refunds will be issued.
-  Severe weather warnings within 5 miles (as issued by the National Weather Service) will trigger immediate public address or media announcements directing guests to seek shelter.
-  Designated shelters: Farm & Home Building ♦ Building 1 ♦ Building 3 ♦ Building 4 ♦ Appalachian Heritage Museum ♦ Show Barn
-  Concerts or events may be delayed, postponed, or canceled depending on severity and duration of weather.

Conduct & Attire

-  Shirt and  shoes are required at all times.
-  Appropriate, family-friendly attire is expected.
-  Open-toed shoes are not permitted on certain rides (see Drew Exposition ride requirements online).
-  Guests displaying inappropriate or disruptive behavior will be removed from the fairgrounds.

Soliciting & Promotions

-  Unauthorized soliciting, selling, distribution of materials, or promotion of other events/organizations is strictly prohibited.
-  Unauthorized posting of signs, banners, or handbills is not allowed on the grounds, parking areas, or fencing.
-  All sales and promotional activities must be pre-approved by Appalachian Fair Management.

Admission, Tickets & Re-Entry

-  No re-entry: Hand stamps are not used. Guests must purchase a new ticket to re-enter once leaving.
-  Tickets must be purchased only through the Appalachian Fair website or the official Box Office. Third-party tickets are not guaranteed and will not be honored. Scammers charging more than our advertised prices ($10-$25) should be avoided.
-  Lost or stolen tickets are the responsibility of the purchaser.
-  All tickets, coupons, and passes become void after the last day of the event.

Safety & Liability

-  The Appalachian Fair and Washington County Sheriff's Office encourage parents to photograph their child/children before entering, in case of separation.
-  Washington County EMS provides on-site emergency medical services.  First Aid is located beside the Appalachian Heritage Museum and Appalachian Arena.
-  The Appalachian Fair is not responsible for lost, stolen, or damaged items.
-  All property, merchandise, or exhibits are left at the fairgrounds at the sole risk of the owner.
-  By entering the fairgrounds, guests assume the inherent risks of exposure to E-Coli/Salmonella (animal areas) and COVID-19 (public gathering).  We encourage frequent washing or sanitizing of your hands, especially after visiting animal exhibits. Hand-washing stations and hand-sanitizer units are available throughout the grounds.

Media Notice

- By attending, you consent to the use of your image, likeness, and voice in promotional materials. You waive all rights to royalties and release the Appalachian Fair from liability related to the use of photographs, video, or audio taken on the premises.

Special Notes for Vendors & Exhibitors

-  Vendors, concessionaires, and their employees must comply with all Appalachian Fair rules and regulations.
-  The Fair reserves the right to revoke space, issue refunds, or remove parties deemed objectionable.
-  Department-specific rules are listed in each competition catalog in addition to these General Rules.
-  Competition is open to the world unless otherwise stated.

Catalog & Entry Forms are available for download on our website or may be picked up in the fair office

Fine Arts Exhibitor Rules & Information ~ A Century of Family, Farming, & Fun

- Eligibility of Entries: All exhibits must be the original work of the exhibitor and produced during the current year. Please ensure each entry is submitted in the appropriate lot for judging.
- Framing & Presentation Requirements: All Oil, Acrylic, Watercolor, Drawing, and Mixed Media pieces must be framed and wired for hanging, with no glass permitted. All other items may be mounted on mat board for display.
- Hanging & Size Guidelines: All frames must be securely wired to adequately support the artwork's weight and be ready for display on pegboard hooks. Maximum size: 48 inches in any direction.
- Matted Artwork: Matted pieces may use a stick-on eyelet hanger, provided it is sturdy enough to withstand heat and support the full weight of the piece.
- Entry Limitations: Exhibitors may enter only one (1) item per lot. Items that have been previously entered are not eligible for re-submission.
- Exhibit Standards & Conduct: The Appalachian Fair reserves the right to refuse any item deemed unsuitable for public display or to disqualify any exhibitor who interferes with the judging process.
- Judging Criteria: Entries are judged based on quality of workmanship and originality of design. Judges are not required to award all placings if entries are not considered worthy of recognition.
- Best of Show: A Best of Show award will be selected from among the first-place winners of each lot.
- Claiming Entries: Entries not claimed on pick-up day, or within 30-days following the Fair's close, will become the property of the Appalachian Fair Association.
- Regulations & Compliance: All exhibitors are subject to the rules and health regulations of the Tennessee Department of Agriculture and the Appalachian Fair, found in this catalog.
- State Fair Eligibility: ♦ Select winning entries may be eligible for competition at the Tennessee State Fair. Exhibitors will be notified if selected for state-level entry.

Fairest of the Fair Contest

“Tennessee’s Fairest of the Fair”

Monday, August 24 at 7:00pm

on the Museum Stage

Entry Deadline: August 13

This contest is held in conjunction with “Tennessee’s Fairest of the Fair” Contest, which is sponsored by the Tennessee Association of Fairs.

FAIREST OF THE FAIR RULES & INFORMATION:

• Entry Fee & Sponsorship:

- A $50 NON-REFUNDABLE ENTRY FEE is required for each Contestant.
- Each contestant must be sponsored by a civic organization, business, or family member.
- Entry forms are available from the Appalachian Fair Office or may be downloaded from www.appalachianfair.com . Completed entries must be delivered to the Fair Office no later than August 13.
- The number of contestants is limited to 30.
- Payment may be made by check, cash, or credit card. Checks should be made payable to the Appalachian Fair.

- Eligibility Requirements: Contestants must be residents of Tennessee. An original birth certificate must be presented at the first rehearsal as all contestants must have reached their 16th birthday but not their 21st birthday on or before December 31 of the current year.

- Judging Criteria: Contestants will be judged on the following: Beauty – Poise – Personality.

- Contest Details: The Fairest of the Fair Pageant will be held at the Appalachian Fairgrounds on Monday, August 24, 2026, at 7:00pm on the Museum Stage. The contestant crowned Fairest of the Fair must be available to reign for the remainder of the week of the Fair, assisting with all pageant competitions and other Fair events as requested by Fair management. Additional rules and expectations are detailed on the official application form.

- Disqualifications & Conduct: Contestants are not eligible if they have ever been married, have had a child, competed in a prior Tennessee Association of Fair (TAF) State Pageant, or been convicted of a felony. All contestants must be of good moral character and must be, and have always been, of the female gender.

- Attire Requirements: Contestants must wear formal floor-length attire. Dresses may be two pieces but cannot consist of a wrap-skirt worn over a bodysuit. A modest midriff may be visible; however, bralettes are not appropriate. Contestants should dress age-appropriately for the 16-20 age group.

- State Competition Eligibility: Additional rules and eligibility requirements are established by the Tennessee Association of Fairs Pageant Committee for participation in the TAF Fairest of the Fair State Pageant. Please refer to the official application form for the complete list of state-level regulations.

- Awards & Honors: The young lady crowned Appalachian Fair’s Fairest of the Fair will receive a $2,500 scholarship award, payable the following year upon the crowning of the 2026 Fairest of the Fair. Proof of school registration must be submitted to receive the scholarship award. The Fairest of the Fair will also represent the Appalachian Fair in the Tennessee Fairest of the Fair Contest held in Murfreesboro in January 2027. The Appalachian Fair will cover all travel expenses for the queen and her chaperone to attend the state competition.

- State Competition Winner: The winner of the state contest will receive the title of ‘Tennessee’s Fairest of the Fair’ and such prizes as approved by the Tennessee Association of Fairs.

2025 Fairest of the Fair Winners:

Miss Appalachian Fair:

Faith Vance

1st Runner Up: Kayley Salyer

2nd Runner Up: Finley Potteet

3rd Runner Up: Emily Grace Jacobs

4th Runner Up: Cora Annsliie Broyles
