MEMORANDUM

TO: Fair Officials, Rodeo, Livestock and Poultry Exhibition or Show Managers

FROM: Samantha Beaty, DVM
State Veterinarian

DATE: February 21, 2025

Enclosed is a summary of Tennessee regulations and health requirements for livestock and poultry at fair shows, exhibitions, other shows and rodeos.
Special Comments:

1. It is expected that all exhibitors bring only healthy animals to fairs and exhibitions. Although state and federal animal health officials will be performing as many inspections as possible, fair officials are responsible for ensuring that all animals entering fairs for exhibition are in overall good health and are accompanied by a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection. Animals showing clinical signs of contagious disease should be sent home immediately. Violations should be reported to the state veterinarian or her agent.
2. Certificate(s) of Veterinary Inspection (CVI) are to accompany all animal(s) to the respective shows with the exception of in-state Tennessee equine and poultry. In-state Tennessee equine six (6) months of age and older must have a negative Equine Infectious Anemia test within the preceding twelve (12) months. Poultry assembled at shows or exhibitions should be accompanied by evidence of a negative test for Pullorum-Typhoid within 90 days or be tested on-site prior to exhibition following strict biosecurity procedures or originate directly from a flock which has been certified as Pullorum-Typhoid Clean under the Tennessee Poultry Improvement Plan. As part of increased awareness and surveillance for Avian Influenza and other poultry diseases, the physical appearance of all birds should be assessed at the time testing is conducted.
3. Certificates of Veterinary Inspection issued in satisfaction of these Tennessee Fair Regulations shall be good for 90 days for Tennessee livestock only.
4. Certificates of Veterinary Inspection demonstrate that the animal showed no signs of contagious disease at the time of veterinary exam and CVI issuance. Animals developing signs of disease after inspection but during the period the CVI is valid are still subject to rules refusing entry of animals with contagious diseases to exhibitions and shows.
5. Please note that exhibition requirements for out-of-state livestock are the same as regular import requirements.
6. Warts, ringworm, scabies, contagious ecthyma (sore mouth), foot rot, cutaneous fungal and bacterial infections (i.e. club lamb disease, caseous lymphadenitis, pink eye/conjunctivitis) are considered contagious and infectious diseases and are NOT permissible.
7. All out-of-state poultry must originate directly from a Pullorum-Typhoid Clean Flock and a H5/H7 Avian Influenza Clean Flock or be accompanied by evidence of a negative Pullorum-Typhoid test within ninety (90) days and a negative official Avian Influenza test within twenty-one (21) days.

Also, please note that if highly pathogenic avian influenza is detected in Tennessee or a neighboring state, commingling of poultry at fairs and exhibitions may be suspended.

Fair Biosecurity

Below is a summary of recommendations for fair management by the National Assembly of State Animal Health Officials and the National Association of State Public Health Veterinarians to better protect fair attendees from disease:

- Provide easy access to hand washing stations.
- Post informational signage that includes the following messages:
 - No eating or drinking in the animal areas.
 - Wash hands frequently.
 - No pacifiers, sipping cups or strollers in the animal exhibition areas.
- Discourage sleeping in the animal exhibition areas.
- If human or swine influenza-like-illness is associated with the exhibition, animal health and public health officials should be notified immediately.
- People who have influenza-like illness should leave the exhibition immediately and seek medical care. They should advise their health care provider about their fair attendance.
- People at high risk for developing severe complications from influenza should limit their exposure to swine.

Also, be aware of the potential exposure of fair attendees to Salmonella and E. coli 0157 from animals exhibited on the fairgrounds.

Please retain this material for reference during the 2025 fair season.

Recommendations for Exhibitors of Lactating Dairy Cows Related to H5N1/Avian Influenza of Dairy CattleAdapted from USDA APHIS Guidance (May 2024)*Before the Event

- Become familiar with requirements for interstate movement as well as any state specific exhibition requirements prior to the event.
 - Rules and Regulations Governing Movement and Handling of Livestock at Fairs and Exhibitions
 - Federal Order Requiring Testing for and Reporting of Highly Pathogenic Avian Influenza (HPAI) in Livestock
 - APHIS strongly recommends minimizing movement of lactating dairy cattle as much as possible, with special attention to evaluating risk and factoring that risk into movement decisions.
 - Consult with your veterinarian to discuss risk.
 - Lactating dairy cattle moving interstate to an exhibition, show, or sale must have a negative test result from samples collected within 7 days of movement. These animals may travel to their home herd using the same negative test result provided the exhibition, show, or sale does not exceed 10 days of length.
 - Lactating Dairy Cattle residing within Tennessee and moving to an exhibition, show, or sale within Tennessee (intrastate movement) do not require pre-movement testing.
- Become familiar with signs of influenza in cattle and work with your veterinarian to ensure your animals are free of illness.
 - Signs of influenza in dairy cattle include decreased milk production; reduced appetite; thickened, discolored milk; lethargy; fever; and/or dehydration.
 - If you have any animals with clinical signs on the premises, do not move other animals off the premises.
- Ensure that any people that will be attending the fair or exhibition do not have any symptoms of illness.
- Clean and disinfect any equipment you will be bringing with you to the exhibition such as:
 - Feed equipment
 - Cleaning utensils
 - Grooming equipment
 - Vehicle and Trailer (inside and out)
 - Portable milking equipment
 - Use approved disinfectants that are safe for human and animal contact: <https://www.epa.gov/pesticide-registration/list-m-registered-antimicrobial-products-label-claims-avian-influenza>
- Avoid transporting animals from different premises in the same trailer.

During the Event

- Keep copies of certificates of veterinary inspection (CVIs), vaccination records, and test results on hand and readily available.
- Observe cattle regularly for signs of influenza-like illness (e.g. decreased milk production; reduced appetite; thickened, discolored milk; lethargy; fever; and/or dehydration).
 - Report sick cattle to the show veterinarian and exhibition organizers.
- Sick animals should be immediately removed from the exhibition or moved to a designated temporary isolation area. Sick lactating dairy cattle can be evaluated on site before leaving the premises OR can be sent home and state animal health officials and your veterinarian should be contacted for follow up testing.
 - Interaction with the sick animal should be limited to only people caring for the animal.
 - Dedicated personal protective equipment (PPE) such as disposable gloves, gown/coveralls, and boots or boot covers should be worn by people caring for sick animals.
 - No treatment supplies, feed or water, portable milking equipment and supplies, or grooming supplies should be shared between sick animals and healthy animals.
 - Additional precautions should be taken by those caring for sick animals to minimize the opportunity for disease transmission to other cattle or people. Precautions could include hand washing before putting on and after taking off PPE, changing clothes and changing boots between activities.
- Follow the event's biosecurity plan. Avoid close contact with other exhibitor's animals and avoid nose-to-nose contact between animals.
- Follow the event guidance for handling milk from lactating cows.
- Do not share tools, feed and water, portable milking equipment and supplies, or grooming supplies with other exhibitors.

After the Event

- Isolate and observe animals daily for illness after returning home and before allowing contact with other animals.
 - 30-day isolation of lactating dairy cattle from other livestock is recommended.
 - Do not share equipment between show cattle and other animals at home.
- Discuss the need to test animals returning from an exhibition or fair for influenza A with your veterinarian.
- Consult your state or local public health department if exhibitors or family members develop influenza-like illness (e.g., fever or chills, cough, sore throat, runny or stuffy nose, muscle or body aches, headaches, tiredness, and/or vomiting and diarrhea) or conjunctivitis (red eyes) following the event. Testing and treatment for influenza A may be available. The TN Dept of Health can be reached at 615-741-7247 (24/7).
- Clean and disinfect all equipment you took to the show.
 - Use approved disinfectants that are safe for human and animal contact. (See link above)

- Any lot listed in this classification which exceeds 15 head per lot should be broken into smaller lots. This should be accomplished by dividing the lot as evenly as possible without splitting animals with the same birth date. Lot breaks will be at the discretion of the Show Directors and in compliance of the AAA rules.

Shorthorn Exhibitor Rules and Information

1. All animals must be registered as the property of the exhibitor in the records of the American Shorthorn Association (ASA) by the time of the fair or show. Please refer to specific show guidelines for Junior Show ownership. Junior Show deadline for ownership is July 1, 2025.
2. All Shorthorn and ShorthornPlus are subject to a tattoo inspection, parentage DNA testing, and age inspection and/or females 20 months of age on day of show are subject to a blood test to prove pregnancy if deemed necessary by the ASA. The decision of an examining veterinarian is final.
3. The fair must adhere to the show divisions regardless of the entry numbers. Age divisions (i.e.: Late Spring Calf, Early Spring Calf, Junior Calf, Senior Calf, Intermediate, Junior, Senior, Cow/Calf) are not flexible.
4. ASA will accept electronic registration papers at ASA sanctioned shows for check-in, unless otherwise stated by the hosting show rules.
5. Cow/Calf is a division that is included with all other female divisions for selection of Grand & Reserve Grand Champion Female.
6. Females 20 months of age on the day of the show need to have a pregnancy verification signed by an accredited, non-owner veterinarian at the time the female is processed for the show. If verification cannot be produced upon request, the exhibitor is allowed to find a qualified veterinarian to verify pregnancy prior to time of show.
7. Senior Yearling Females who have calved will show based on age. The exhibitor can exhibit the female with or without the calf at side. If a Purebred Female has a ShorthornPlus calf at side, it is NOT eligible for the Purebred Shorthorn Show, however it is eligible for the ShorthornPlus Show.
8. Females entered in a cox/calf lot must have a natural born calf at side that does not exceed 280 days of age on show day and the calf must be registered with the ASA.
9. Each of the lots MAY be broken into multiple lots to accommodate large numbers of entries, but separate lots may NOT be combined into one.

All cattle shown including calves at the side of the dam must be A) 75% Limousin (NALF percentage, not actual) or greater as indicated on orange NALF registration certificates; or B) Purple-papered Lim-Flex cattle as indicated by NALF registration certificates. That exception is not applicable on show day or weigh-in/check-in day.

9. NALF reserves the right to mouth animals for dental development and to collect DNA samples from any animal.
10. Class/lot size shall be to the discretion of the show superintendent and may not contain more than 20 head. The given lots may be split or combined only within their given division.

Department 231 – Open Dairy Show
Dairy Exhibitor Rules and Information

The Appalachian Fair will host a One-Day Dairy Show. The Junior and Open shows will be held simultaneously. Each class/lot will be judged and placed as an Open Show class/lot. Following the Open Show placings, Junior Show exhibitors will be asked to pull forward and receive their Junior Show awards. Therefore, if showing in the Junior Show, a junior exhibitor must be exhibiting the animal.

1. No animal can be entered or exhibited unless recorded in the recognized books of record for their respective breeds. Exhibitors must produce a Certificate of Registry at the request of the department chairperson. Animals that cannot be identified by tattoo, ear tags, or color markings shall not be eligible to be shown.
2. In the Best Udder class/lots, where there are less than three animals shown, premium awards will not be automatic, but are at the discretion of the Judge.
3. The milking parlor will be open only with the approval of the TN State Veterinarian. At this time, there is a strong possibility that the parlor will remain closed during fair week. All Dairy Exhibitors of lactating cows are advised to make plans to bring their own milking equipment.
4. Cows must be entered as dry or milking at the time of registration. No changes will be accepted upon arrival!
5. Exhibitor is defined as the owner recorded on the Registration Certificate. For the Breeder's Herd class/lot and for the Premier Exhibitors class/lot the definition will be interpreted to include the exhibitor and active 4-H or FFA projects that are maintained on the exhibitor's dairy.
6. The Breeder is defined as the breeder recorded on the Registration Certificate. For the Breeder's Herd and Premier Breeder class/lot the interpretation will be that 'bred by' animals must possess the same prefix or have the same individuals listed as the breeder.

Show Ring Code of Ethics for all Breeds:

The showing of registered dairy cattle is an important part of the promotion, merchandising, and breeding programs of many breeders. Additionally, it is an important part of the program of the Purebred Dairy Cattle Association to stimulate and sustain interest in breeding registered dairy cattle. This relates to both spectators and exhibitors. In this connection, the PDCA believes that it is in the best interest of the breeders of registered dairy cattle to maintain a reputation of integrity and to present a wholesome and progressive image of their cattle in the show ring. It recognizes that there are certain practices in proper care and management of dairy cattle, which are necessary while moving dairy cattle to and between shows that are advisable to keep them in sound, healthy condition so that they might be presented in the show ring in a natural, normal appearance and condition. Conversely, it recognizes certain practices in the cataloging, handling, and presentation of cattle in the show ring that are acceptable. The following practices or procedures are considered unacceptable and defined as being unethical in the showing of registered dairy cattle:

1. Misrepresenting the age and/or milking status of the animal for the class/lot in which it is shown. In any female classes/lots, animals may not be exhibited that are in milk due to unnaturally induced lactation.
2. Balancing the udder by any means other than by leaving naturally produced milk in any or all quarters.
3. Setting the teats with a mechanical contrivance or with the use of chemical preparation.
4. Treating or massaging any part of the animal's body, particularly the udder, internally or externally with an irritant, counter-irritant, or other substance to temporarily improve conformation or produce unnatural animation.
5. Minimizing the effects of cramping by feeding or injecting drugs, depressants or applying packs or using any artificial contrivance or therapeutic treatment excepting natural exercise.

6. Blocking nerves to the foot to prevent limping by injecting drugs. Striking the animal to cause swelling in a depressed area. Surgery of any kind performed to change the natural contour or appearance of the animal's body, hide or hair. Not included are the removal of warts, teats, and horns, clipping and dressing of hair and trimming hooves. Insertion of foreign materials under skin.
7. Changing color of hair at any point, spot, or area on animal's body.
8. The use of alcoholic beverages in the feed or administered as a drench.
9. Administration of a drug of any kind or description internally or externally prior to entering the show ring, except for treating a recognized disease or injury and for tranquilizing bulls that may otherwise be dangerous or females in heat. For this Code, the term 'drug' shall mean any substance, the sale, possession, or use of which is controlled by license under federal, state, and local laws or regulations and any substance commonly used by the medical or veterinary professions which affect the circulatory, respiratory, or central nervous system of a cow.
10. Criticizing or interfering with the Judge, show management, or other exhibitors while in the show ring or other conduct detrimental to the breed or show.

At the end of the Open Dairy competitions a Supreme Champion Cow and a Supreme Champion Heifer will be awarded; chosen from the Grand Champion winners in each class. An Adult Herdsman Award will also be presented at the end of the competitions. See page 9 for award requirements.

Sheep Breed Classification Standards

Animals must meet their respective breed/type standards in order to be eligible for that particular breed. This is accomplished through a breed classification/sift during check-in of the show in which a qualified breed sifter evaluates the sheep on how they follow the below breed standards. In the Market Lamb and Commercial Ewe competitions, any animal determined to not meet breed standards will be moved to the respective Blackface Crossbred division. The decisions made by the breed classifier are considered final.
